

MEDICAL CARE ROADMAP

WHERE TO GO FOR CARE BASED ON YOUR CHILD'S SYMPTOMS

Other symptoms

- Fever
- Rash
- Cough or wheezing
- Difficulty breathing
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Sore throat
- Ear pain
- Abdominal pain
- Limb pain
- Painful urination
- Injuries: sprains, strains, simple cuts that may need stitches, bruises
- Allergic reactions

Your primary care provider

Name

Phone number

Address

Preferred urgent care

Phone number

Address

Emergency symptoms

- An infant less than 28 days old with a fever of 100.4 or more
- Weakness/numbness on one side
- Severe chest pain
- Severe difficulty breathing
- Slurred speech
- Serious burns
- Head injury
- Eye injury
- Seizure
- Severe cuts
- Bleeding that won't stop
- Change of mental state

Your emergency department (ED)

Address

If there is no time to call the doctor or drive to the ED and minutes count, call 911 immediately.

1-844-GET-CHOC

Call our free, 24/7 nurse helpline to get answers to your questions about your child's health.